

THE VOICELESS RIVER SINGS ALOUD

Words: John A. Dalles

Music: Glenn L. Rudolph

Tune: ALBEMARLE SOUND

Organ

The voice - less riv - er sings a - loud When splashed a - gainst a
The sil - ent moun - tains rum - ble deep, As la - va spouts and
With hearts un - furled, with eag - er voice, with minds that und - er -
Praise God with in - stru - ments and sound, With reeds that res - o -

Org.

stone! The sound - less o - cean, vast and proud, Speaks with a wave-pitched flows! Tall prair - ie grass - es whirr and leap, to trans - mit all they stand, With ev - ery breath, come and re - joice; O clap ex - ul - tant nate! With strings that quiv - er and re - sound, With brass - es cel - e -

Org.

tone. The emp - ty reed trills as a flute, When filled with Spir - it know! Small mock - ing - birds, frail rob - ins sing, Des - pite their ti - ny hands! None can keep still when touched by God; And God is al - ways brate! With might - y org - ans, sooth - ing harps, With key - boards old and

THE HOLLOW REED BY WIND IS SWAYED

9

breath, Then why, O tim - id one, be mute? Pro - claim God's right - eoussize! Then why, O why, would we not bring God's praise to fill the near! Sing hymns and psalms and an - thems loud, So all the world may new, Praise God with cym - bals and guit - ars, Bring praise to God, a -

Org.

12

ness! _____
 skies? _____
 hear! _____
 new! _____

Org.

4 February 2005
Cranberry Twp., PA