

LET US NOW PRAISE UNKNOWN SOULS

John A. Dalles

Glenn L. Rudolph

1. Let us now praise un - known souls cher - ished ones who came be -
2. Who will count the young they led? Child - ren taught, each gen - e -
3. None were bril - liant so - lo - ists, when they sang, they sang in
4. Let us now praise un - known souls all the ones who came be -

Organ

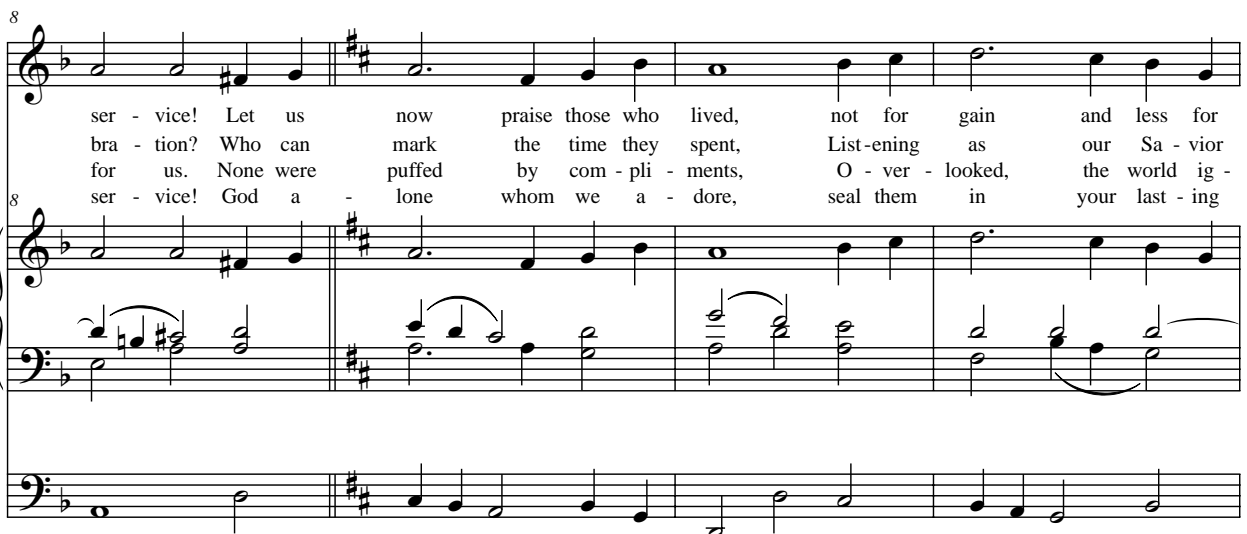

4 fore us; those who set as high - er goals qui - et strength and self - less ra - tion! Who will quote the words they said? Where, their day of cel - e - cho - rus. None were spot - lit dra - ma - tists, all their act - ions were done 4 fore us; those who set as high - er goals qui - et strength and self - less

Org.

8 ser - vice! Let us now praise those who lived, not for gain and less for bra - tion? Who can mark the time they spent, List - ening as our Sa - vior for us. None were puffed by com - pli - ments, O - ver - looked, the world ig - 8 ser - vice! God a - lone whom we a - dore, seal them in your last - ing

Org.

LET US NOW PRAISE UNKNOWN SOULS

12

glo - ry, giv - ing lives and en - er - gies to pass on sal - va - tion's list - ened? Who can tell the good they did? On - ly those whose lives were nored them. Yet, each one was hea - ven sent, Let us sing our prais - es glo - ry. May they be for ev - er - more saints for all who love Christ's

Org.

16

1 - 3

sto - ry!
lift - ed.
for them!
sto - ry!

16

1 - 3

Org.

20

Final Ending

Final Ending

20

Org.